

Missionary of the Week: Chase & Karissa Lundstrom (San Juan Bible Camp)

Hi Keyport! I hope you had a great Thanksgiving.

Camp News:

We are all doing well. My back is definitely improving. Some of the damage is irreparable, but I am optimistic that I will eventually be able to return to much of the activity that I am used to, albeit in a modified and more cautious manner. While I was on “desk duty” letting my back heal, I was able to do important research on several upcoming projects for the camp. More recently, I have been able to start implementing physical work back in. We have begun work on the 2nd half of the boys bathhouse, which is going well. I have also been able to go through camp and perform all the necessary winterizations. I have been meeting with a personal trainer who specializes in back injuries and has been guiding me through strengthening my back. It has been very helpful.

Truthfully, this past summer was very discouraging for us at San Juan Bible Camp, with not being able to open camp and the financial challenges that came with that. We are trusting in the Lord to sustain camp, as He has faithfully done for over 50 years. I remain diligent to work on what I can and prepare for the future. We really appreciate your prayers!

Family News:

Karissa took a part time position as the director of the local crisis pregnancy center. It is an exciting new ministry that she is both passionate about and well equipped for! She still has more training to complete, but has already made lots of progress in updating the center preparing it for future growth.

We also have a newborn baby in the house again! About two weeks ago we began caring for foster child. It remains to be seen if this will be a temporary or permanent situation, but we consider each day an opportunity to provide a loving and nurturing home. Savannah and Parker are loving having a baby around and have been a great help.

So between camp work, the center, and a baby in the house, our plates are very full!!!! Thank you so much for your encouragement and partnership. We miss the church family at KBC and hope you have a wonderful holiday season.

Prayer Requests & Praises

- Continue to pray for our Pastor Search Committee as they progress in their efforts! They completed their third interview this week!
- Pray for Reita Collins, She attended KBC in the '90s and early '00s before moving to be closer to family. Recently she had exploratory heart surgery and is meeting with a doctor this week to determine if repairs need to be made. She is also struggling with pain in her shoulders after having surgery on both of them. Please pray for healing, comfort, and encouragement, especially as during the time of COVID she is not able to have visits from her family.
- Please pray for our dear sister in the Lord, Danna Bailey. She has been having chronic shoulder pain and finally had the necessary scans taken and interpreted. Because of significant arthritis, she is bone on bone and will require surgery. Danna is in significant pain and discomfort. She asks for your prayers. Lord, comfort and strengthen our dear sister at this time. Give all who are trying to help her wisdom and understanding as to how to do this. May your healing hand may be upon her. May she be keenly aware of your love for her and your presence at this time.
- Continue to pray during this pandemic of COVID-19. Pray for wisdom for the doctors and scientists as they treat and research this virus, pray for wisdom for government leaders as they decide how to balance the effects of the virus itself and the effects on each nations' economies, pray for the safety of people as they experience various additional crises around the world during the pandemic, pray for the physical and mental health for people as they isolate as there has been an increase of suicides and domestic violence around the world due to lockdowns, pray for the church around the world as they continue to spread the gospel of salvation during this time of increased tension and violence.
